

Katz & Associates' Buchanan receives Charles "Mac" McClure, CCIM, Volunteer of the Year Award

By MAREJ Staff
Mid Atlantic Real Estate Journal
Nov 18, 2022

Katz & Associates announced that Holly Buchanan, CCIM, has received the inaugural Charles "Mac" McClure, CCIM, Volunteer of the Year Award. Buchanan serves as a senior director at the Katz Nashville office, which she helped open in 2017. She received the award in Chicago on October 15 at the CCIM Inauguration Ball, a celebration of the installation of 2023 CCIM Leadership and a part of the Institute's fall business meetings. "Earning the CCIM designation not only changed my career path, but also enhanced my personal life with many good colleagues and lifelong friends," said Buchanan. Born and raised in the Nashville area, Holly has extensive knowledge and expertise of the Tennessee markets and has built strong relationships with local brokers, owners, and developers. She has devoted over 20 years exclusively to retail site selection, leasing, and retail/office sales. She earned her CCIM designation in 2009, has served on many committees at the National level, and will be the Education Presidential Liaison in 2024. trade area," said Brian Katz. "Two spaces (4,000 and 5,000 s/f) are still available."

Katz & Associates' Buchanan receives Charles "Mac" McClure, CCIM, Volunteer of the Year Award

ENGLEWOOD, NJ — Katz & Associates announced that Holly Buchanan, CCIM,

Holly Buchanan

has received the inaugural Charles "Mac" McClure, CCIM, Volunteer of the Year Award. Buchanan