Restaurant Roundup: Poke OG to Open in Wynwood; First Watch Coming to Delray Beach

Restaurant Roundup

Poke OG

The 1,200-square-foot Asian restaurant, at 161 S.E. First St. in Miami, got its start in December 2017 at the 1-800-Lucky food hall in Miami's Wynwood neighborhood. This brick-and-mortar location, which seats 37 patrons, opened March 6.

Doya

This Aegean restaurant is slated to open in Wynwood the first week of May. The 9,500-square-foot Doya will seat 160 customers inside and 60 to 70 outside.

First Watch

The popular brunch restaurant chain signed a lease to open at Delray Beach Plaza this spring. First Watch will occupy 3,500 square feet at the shopping center, which is anchored by Whole Foods Market. Katz & Associates, which has an office in Boca Raton, represented the tenant.

Almond

Located at 207 Royal Poinciana Way in Palm Beach, the 100-seat restaurant is the third location for the chain. There are other Almond restaurants in Manhattan and Bridgehampton, New York.
