

New York, NY, July 20, 2020
Press Release

GANSEVOORT MARKET FOOD HALL COMING TO WESTFIELD WORLD TRADE CENTER SHOPS AT THE OCULUS

Gansevoort Market Food Hall will open a second location in New York City at the Westfield World Trade Center Shops at the Oculus this fall. Like the original Gansevoort Market located in Chelsea, this modern food hall will be a lively and contemporary food and entertainment venue featuring a full-service bar, a wide variety of cuisine ranging from dishes from different parts of Asia and Europe to classic American cheeseburgers, and special events such as live music and Karaoke.

“Adding another iconic New York City establishment to Westfield World Trade Center is really special,” said Danielle Hascoe, general manager, Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield. “The Gansevoort Market Food Hall will expand the wide variety of cuisines, grab-and-go, and seated dining that is currently available for commuters, tourists, and working professionals alike. We continue to focus on making sure our guests’ interests, needs and conveniences are catered to with a full range of dining experiences.”

Vendors in the Food Hall will include:

Bar – Full stocked Burgers	Menu
Eat Well – Mediterranean	Menu
Have An Ice Day – Bubble Tea & Ice Cream	Menu
K-Pop Haus – Korean BBQ, Bowls, Noodles & Soup	Menu
Los Panchos Taqueria – Mexican Food	Menu
LULU – Poke & Bibimbap	Menu
Makito – Sushi & Ramen	Menu
Pink Butter – Cookies House plus Coffee	Menu
Patsy’s Pizzeria	Menu
Tama – Japanese Rice Bowls, Pancakes and Noodles	Menu
The Fryers – Fish and Chips	Menu

Cevichelsea – Ceviche Bowls, Rice Bowls and Rotisserie Chicken

Menu

Wing Club – Korean Signature Wings, Strips, Sandwiches and Salads

Menu

“It’s exciting to help bring Gansevoort Market Food Hall to the Westfield World Trade Center Shops at the Oculus,” said David Yablon of Katz & Associates, the firm responsible for executing the lease on behalf of Gansevoort Market Food Hall. “With options to eat in or take out many different and delicious types of cuisine, it will be an asset to the Center for neighborhood residents and employees, and visitors to the area.”

Opened in 2016, Westfield World Trade Center is home to more than 80 shops and restaurants and continues to open new offerings as additional retail space becomes available from the ongoing development of the World Trade Center site. The center serves the lower Manhattan community, welcoming approximately 120 million commuters, office workers, residents and tourists annually with a diverse selection of shops and dining establishments.

David Yablon of Katz & Associates’ and Michael Appell of Appell Associates executed the lease on behalf of Gansevoort Market Food Hall. Katz & Associates began operations in January of 1996. The company currently maintains offices in New York City, Charlotte, Boca Raton, Nashville, New Jersey and Orlando. Katz & Associates’ primary focus is assisting retailers, restaurants and landlords in all capacities including strategic planning, market analysis, lease and sale negotiations and dispositions. Its team of seasoned veterans has decades of experience and invaluable market knowledge.

###

For further information, please contact:

Robyn Cottelli, URW
robyn.cottelli@urw.com
929.254.8309

Laurie Kaiden, Katz & Associates
lauriekaiden@dkatz.com
201.731.8463 (D) or 917-593-2982 (C)

About Westfield World Trade Center

Situated at the portal of lower Manhattan where millions of global travelers walk across—Westfield World Trade Center has become an instantly identifiable landmark like no other. This architectural marvel and the most complete retail destination in New York City showcases 80+ fashion, health, beauty, lifestyle, and technology brands under the magnificent roof of the iconic, Santiago Calatrava designed Oculus. Anchored by Eataly NYC Downtown and Épicerie Boulud, fresh food and fine dining also take center stage at World Trade. The Oculus at Westfield World Trade Center has become Lower Manhattan’s newest meeting place and home to a multitude of community events, headline entertainment, art and cultural programming, and social activities.