In the latest roundup of South Florida real estate hiring news, commercial firms added and promoted personnel across the tri-county region.

Katz & Associates brought in Karen Maerovitz as a senior director, a press release shows. Maerovitz worked as a director of leasing and sales at Katz & Associates from 2018 to 2022, before leaving for the Comras Company in Miami Beach, where she worked as a director for two years, according to LinkedIn.

In her new role, she will focus on tenant and landlord representation and business development throughout South Florida, the release shows.
